

Global Invacom Presents Investment Merits At Small Cap Seminar Organised by Singapore Exchange

Mr Tony Taylor, Executive Chairman of Global Invacom, speaks at an investment seminar organised by the Singapore Exchange (“SGX”) and WeR1

Singapore, 7 October 2016 – Satellite communications (“Sat Comms”) equipment provider Global Invacom Group Limited (“Global Invacom” or “the Group”) this week presented its business strategy and investment merits at a seminar hosted by the Singapore Exchange (“SGX”) and WeR1 Consultants (“WeR1”), the Group’s investor relations partner in Asia.

Global Invacom is listed on the SGX Mainboard and the U.K. AIM Market.

Tony Taylor, Executive Chairman of Global Invacom and Matthew Garner, Chief Financial Officer, both attended the event, where they shared their thoughts on the development of the global Sat Comms industry, emerging technologies and how the Group’s Research and Development business is adapting to meet industry advances.

The Group was one of six listed companies showcased at the seminar, held at the SGX auditorium. Mr Mohamed Nasser Ismail, Head of Equity Capital Market (SME) and Head of Capital Market Development at SGX, gave the opening address.

The seminar was attended by more than 100 corporate leaders and professionals from listed companies, institutional and high net worth investors and fund managers.

No new trading or financial information was disclosed during the seminar. Copies of the presentation will be made available on the Company’s website.
